

Documents required at the recruitment application stage:

The documents should be loaded directly into the Online Application System (IRK).

- a) recommendation of a researcher holding the academic title of professor or the academic degree of doctor habilitated employed in the unit in which the training programme is implemented about the possibility of undertaking scientific cooperation in a specific scope in the event of the candidate being accepted for the training programme at the Doctoral School of Science and Natural Sciences;
- b) an opinion about the candidate issued by a researcher holding at least the academic degree of doctor habilitated or being an employee of a foreign higher education institution or research institution who has significant achievements in scientific issues related to the discipline of life sciences;
- c) curriculum vitae (CV) with particular emphasis on scholarly achievements;
- d) documents confirming the academic achievements listed in the curriculum vitae, e.g.: first page of the article;
- e) a certified translation into Polish or English for each submitted document drawn up in a language other than Polish or English.

In addition, in the event of a candidate who is a graduate of a first-cycle programme or a student who has completed the third year of a long-cycle programme referred to in Article 186, section 2 of this Act:

- a. two opinions referred to in point b) confirming the high quality of research work carried out and the high level of advancement of such work or
- b. a certificate of being a beneficiary of the Diamond Grant Programme of the Ministry of Science and Higher Education.

Documents required for entry:

- a) the original OAS application printed out from the system, containing the photo;
- b) a photocopy and the original for inspection of:
 - a. a diploma certifying the award of a master's degree, master's degree in engineering or an equivalent degree in the field of study, as indicated in the specific enrolment conditions, or
 - b. a diploma confirming completion of first-cycle studies or a document confirming completion of the third year of uniform master's studies and confirming the student status in one of the courses indicated in detail in the enrolment conditions, or
 - c. a document of completion of studies abroad, giving the right to take up studies in the country of issue in order to obtain a doctoral degree or recognised as equivalent with a relevant Polish diploma giving the qualifications listed in point 1. 2 b - a., b.,;
- c) if the candidate has not yet been awarded such a diploma by the deadline for enrolment, he/she shall submit a certificate of completion of such studies and a written undertaking to deliver the diploma of completion of higher education studies giving the right to undertake studies in order to obtain the degree of doctor by the specified deadline;
- d) a photocopy and the original for inspection of: diploma supplement or official transcript of grades, and in the absence thereof, a student record book or another document containing the names of the courses and the grades received;
- e) for inspection: identity card or passport;
- f) the originals of all other documents provided at the registration stage;
- g) a certified translation into Polish or English for each submitted document which has been drawn up in a language other than Polish or English.

Candidates with a higher education degree obtained outside Poland are required to provide the following additional documents:

- h) higher education diploma obtained outside Poland with an apostille or legalised.

Insurance:

Each doctoral student, including a foreigner, admitted to the doctoral school is obligatorily subject to health insurance if he/she is not covered by such insurance on other grounds (e.g. employment relationship, contract of mandate, business activity, insured as a family member under 26 years of age, as the spouse of an insured person). The health insurance contribution is paid by the Jagiellonian University and is financed from the State budget. In addition, a doctoral student receiving a doctoral scholarship is subject to compulsory retirement and disability insurance and accident insurance.

IMPORTANT:

A person admitted to the doctoral school begin PhD studies and acquire doctoral student rights upon taking the oath. The Department of Personal Affairs reports each doctoral student admitted to the School to compulsory health and social insurance at the commencement of PhD studies, i.e. from 1 October at the earliest. Until that time foreign candidates are obliged to cover the costs of insurance for the time of travel, treatment, etc. individually.